

Our Parent/Toddler class was created for your toddler (18 months through three years) and a parent/caregiver to attend together. In an exploration of the world around them, children and adults will navigate this early learning experience together, making choices of how they will participate in play activities, story time, cultural activities (art, music, science) and snack time. Not only is this a wonderful time for your toddler to interact with others, but also a time for adults to discuss topics which are of interest to parents of the young child.

*This class does not require that your toddler be toilet trained.

Mary Rinaldi - Parent/Toddler Teacher

B.S. Early Childhood Education, Kent State University 1992

M.A. Curriculum and Instruction, The Ohio State University 2000

During Mary's doctoral work, she studied and conducted research in early literacy and early mathematics. Mary has taught children in a variety of settings that include both public and private schools. In 2008, Mary was asked to design and implement a program for toddlers and parents at Hudson Montessori School. The initial toddler/parent classes began in the winter of 2009. "In the toddler program, the joy of learning is captured on the children's faces. Their eyes light up as they make discoveries about the world around them."
